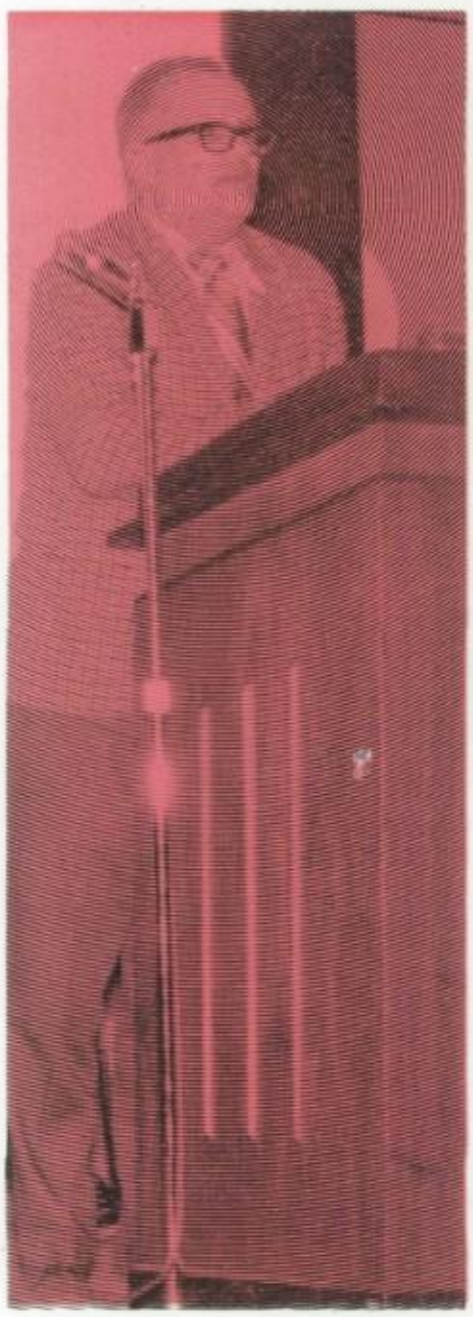
A True Friend Through Our Four Years

Gratitude isn't a feeling easily put into words. As a teacher, class advisor, and most of all, friend, Mr. William Dissinger deserves our best expression of gratitude.

Therefore, the Senior Class of 1973 is honored to dedicate their Cedar Log to him in appreciation for all his efforts in making us a class that will always be remembered at Cedar Crest.

Of the people in my past



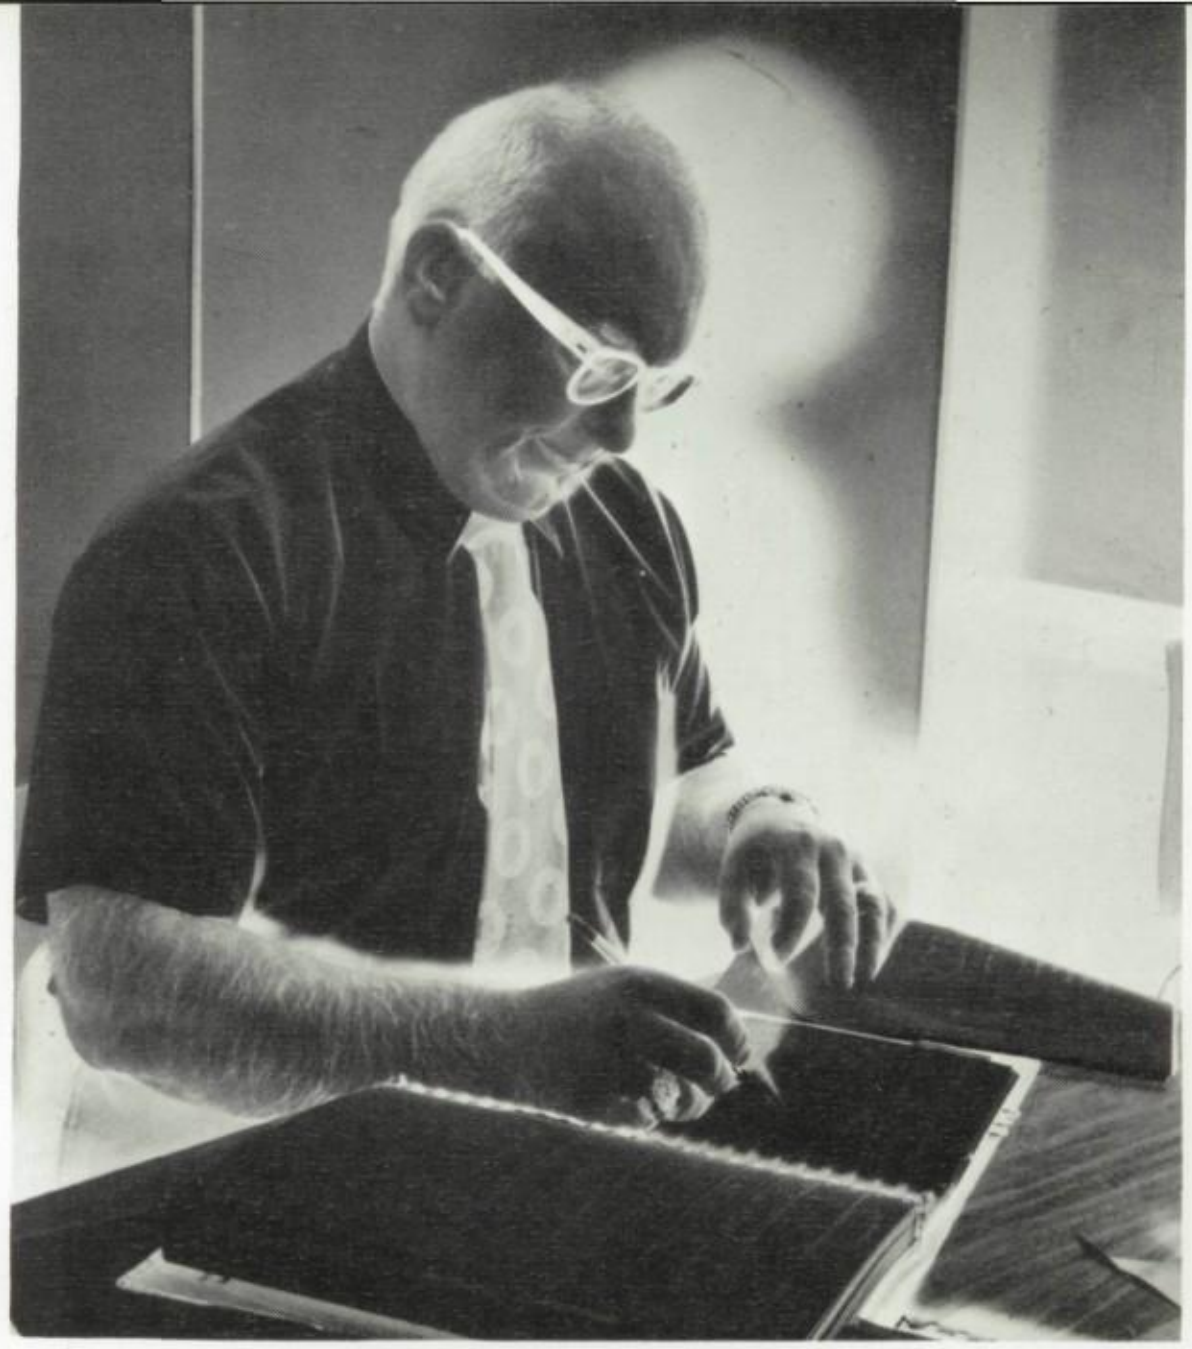
Fading faces

in a waking dream

Appear before us, and in an instant pass by.
We come to know hundreds of faces,
Faces so familiar, yet ever so strange.
Many of these to become the leaders of the future; many not to matter at all.
Soon ours will be forgotten as the dream continues.

Anticipating,
Waiting,
Then gone,
Lost to the past,
Remembered by some,
Forgotten by others.

And though they never seem to last very long



There are faces I remember

from the places in my past

Lingering in the mind,
Good and bad,
These memories of familiar places
Wondering what will happen to them
As the future becomes the reality.

SOCIOLOGY

The smiles and the tears,
Jumbled in a flurry of emotion.
Wanting to remember only the happy times,
Yet never forgetting some of the pain.

Sometimes I can laugh and cry

And I can't remember why

The uncertainty and confusion of those first few days
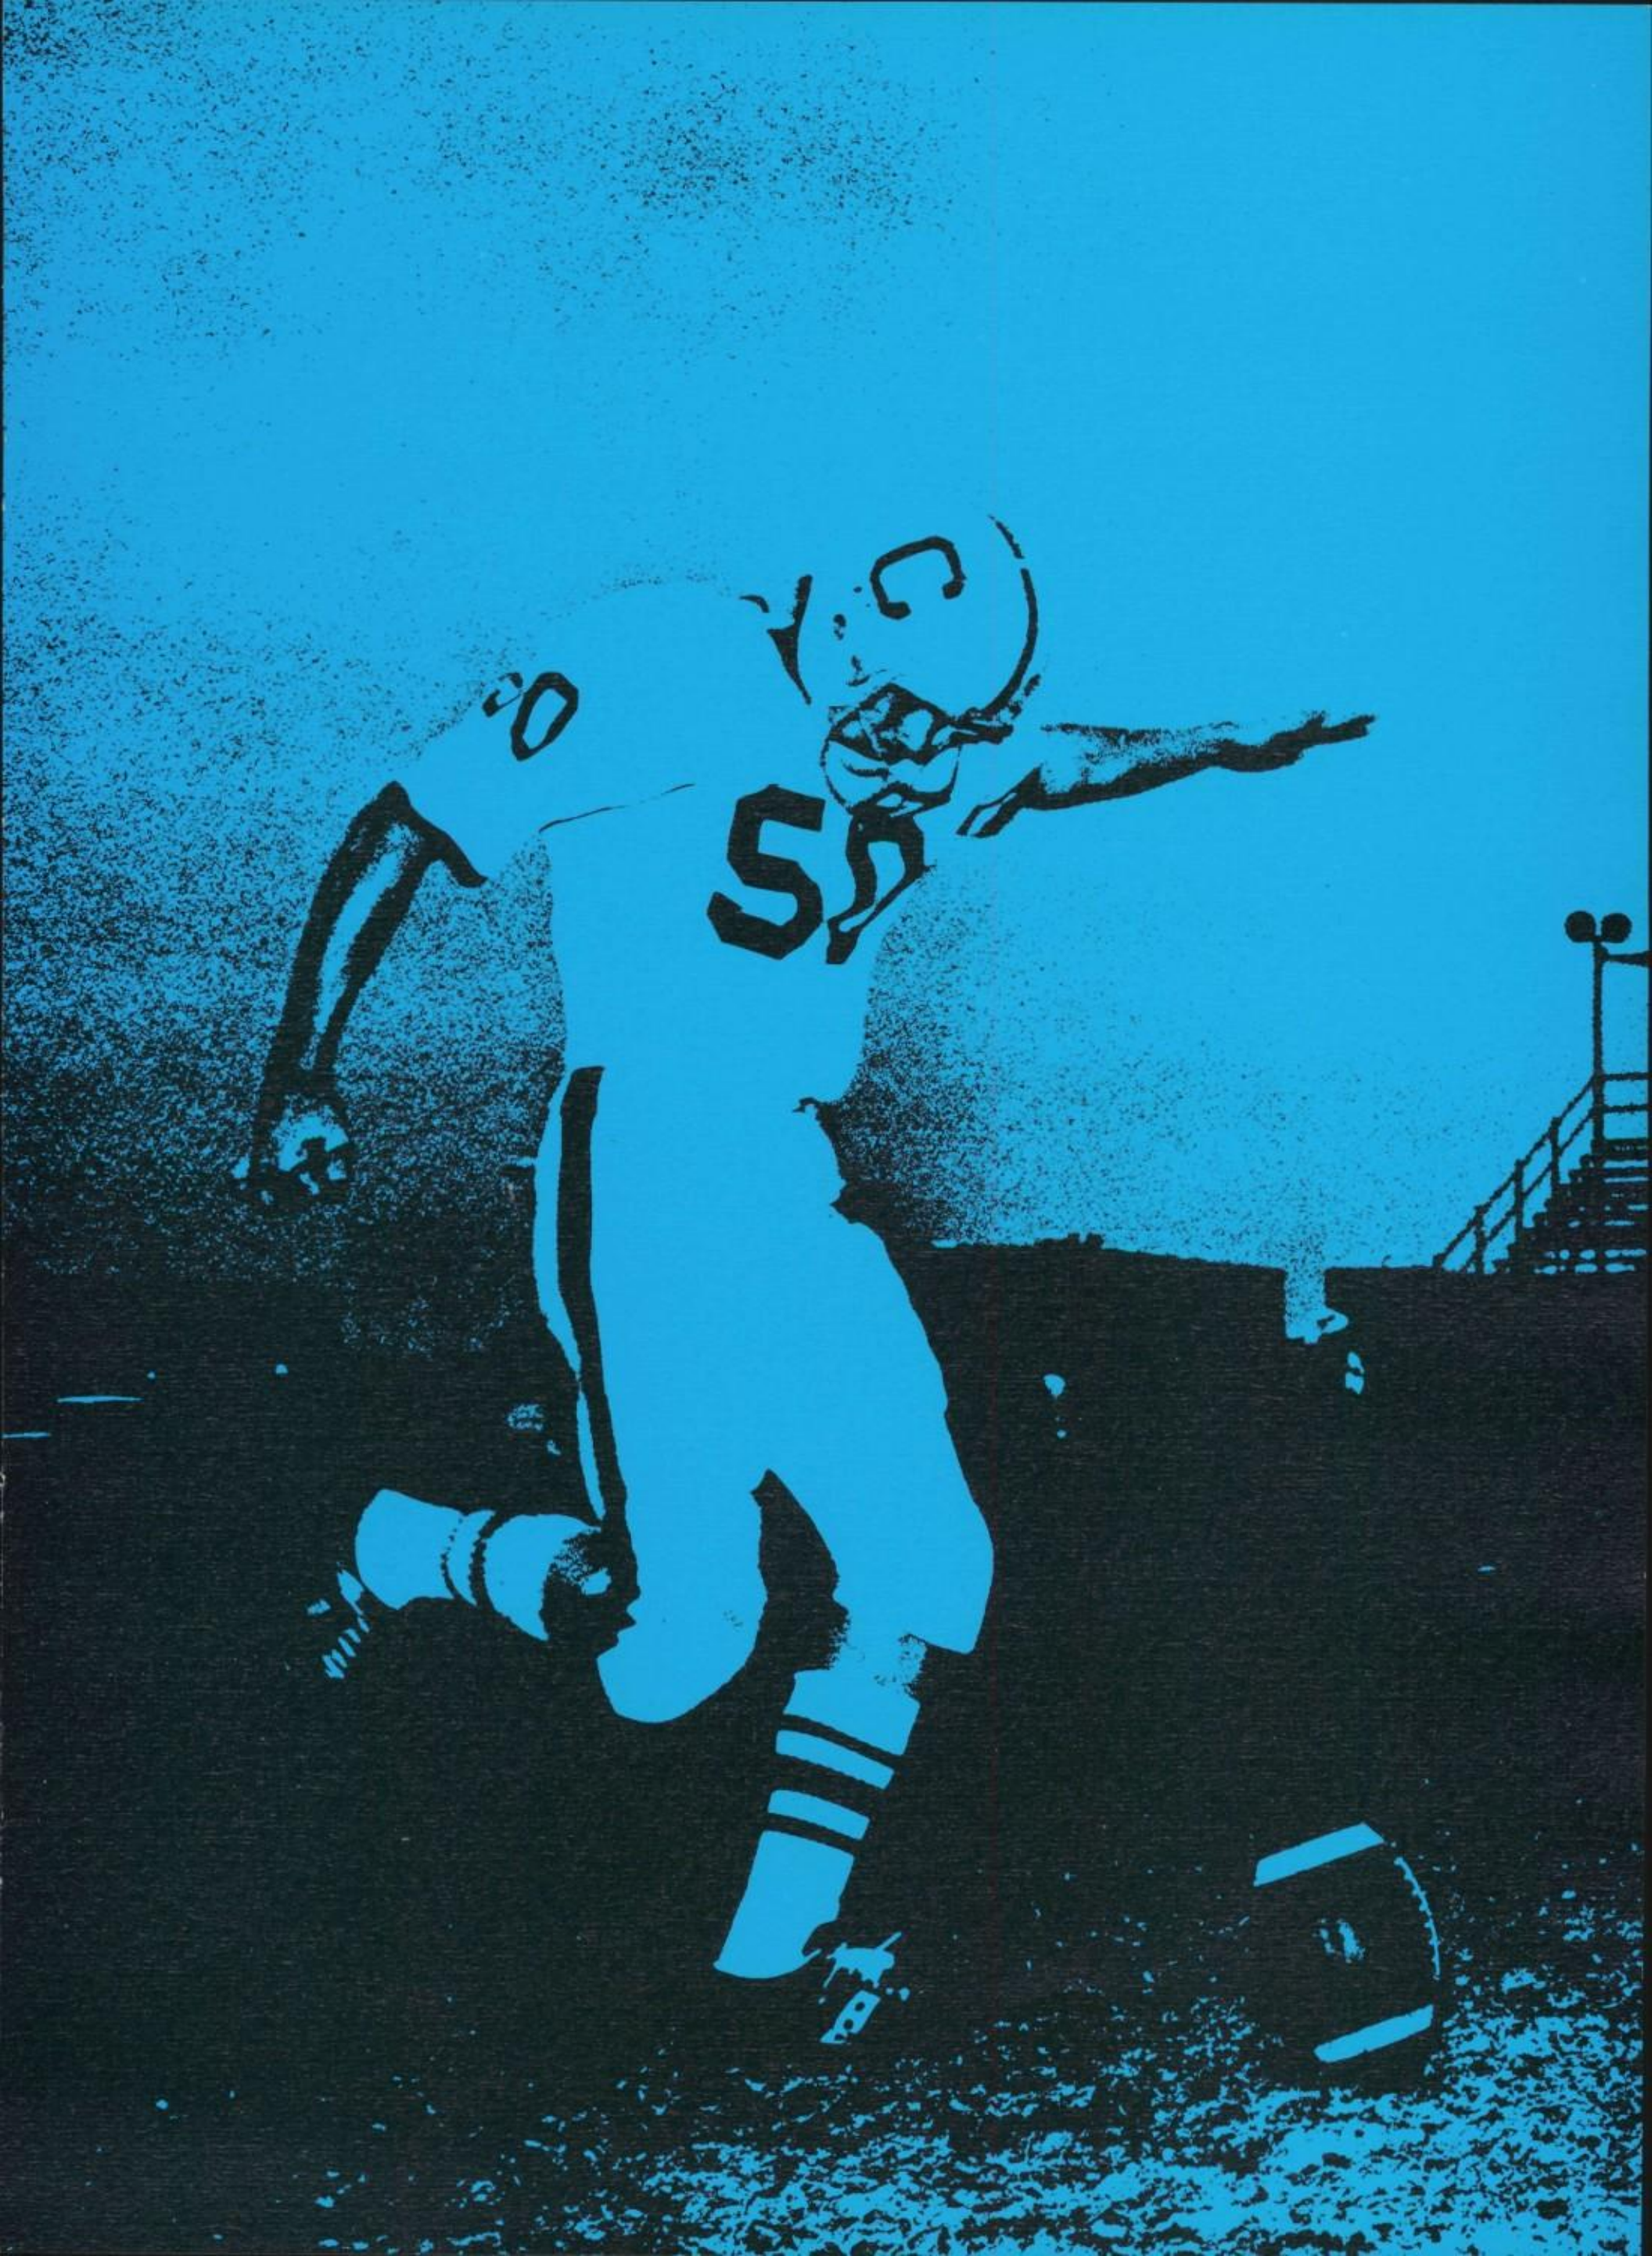
Are soon lost in a mirage of better feelings.
It is hard to recall the exact event
But the image is implanted in my mind.



But I still love those good times gone by

The time has come to move on,
but a fragment of my life
remains here.
My life spent within these walls will not be forgotten.
Someday, when I look back,
I will realize the importance of this chapter in my life.

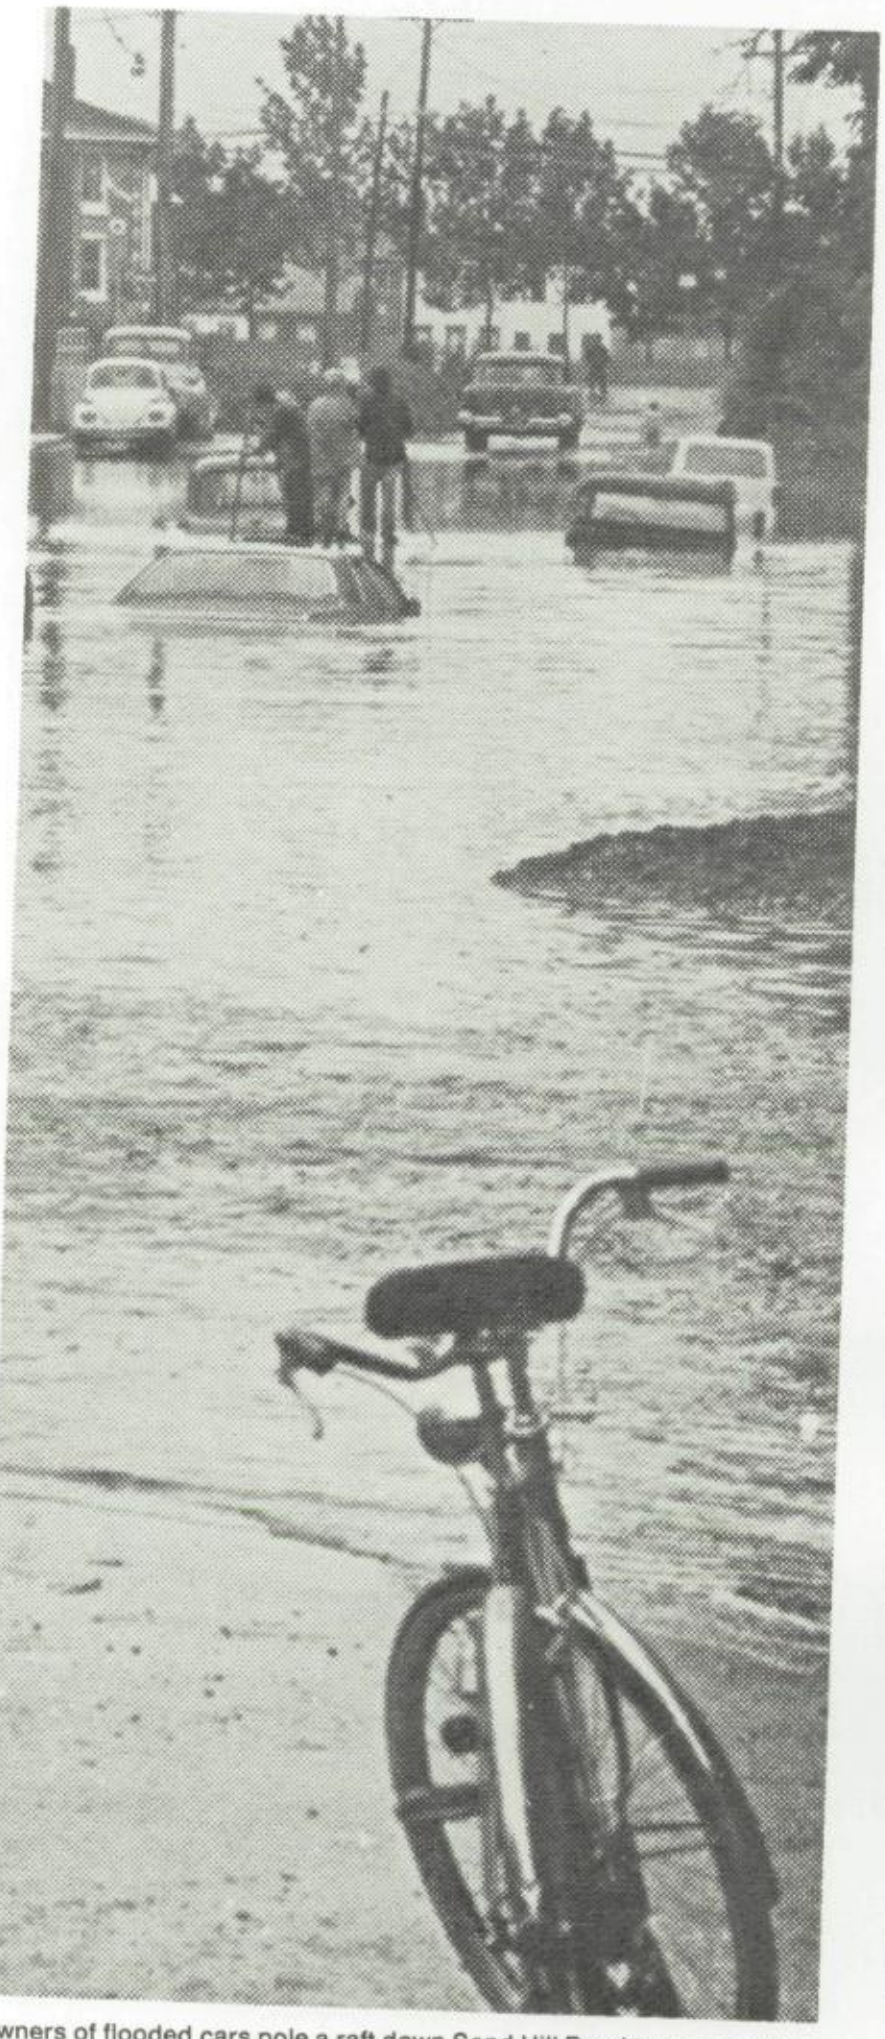
STUDENT LIFE

Hurricane Agnes Brings Danger, Destruction,



Owners of flooded cars pole a raft down Sand Hill Road to examine their vehicles.

For most Cedar Crest students and their families 1972 will long be remembered as the year of the flood.

The waters of tropical storm Agnes brought death, destruction, pain and sorrow to many residents of Lebanon County.

The worst disaster in the history of our county began when hard rains fell during the week of June 19. Flood warnings were issued for Lebanon County on June 21, and on June 22 the floods came.

Few residents had anticipated the danger and disaster that had come. But the steady deluge of rain saturated the earth until water began to cascade through streets and gush into basements.

Rains of 16.84 inches had fallen during the two week period up to the time of the flood. This total was 13.2 inches above normal.

Homes in the western section of the school district near Annville are partially hidden by Agnes' waters.

Many houses along the Little Swatara Creek at Old Bunker Hill were severely damaged by rapidly moving flood waters.

and Death to Residents of Lebanon County Area

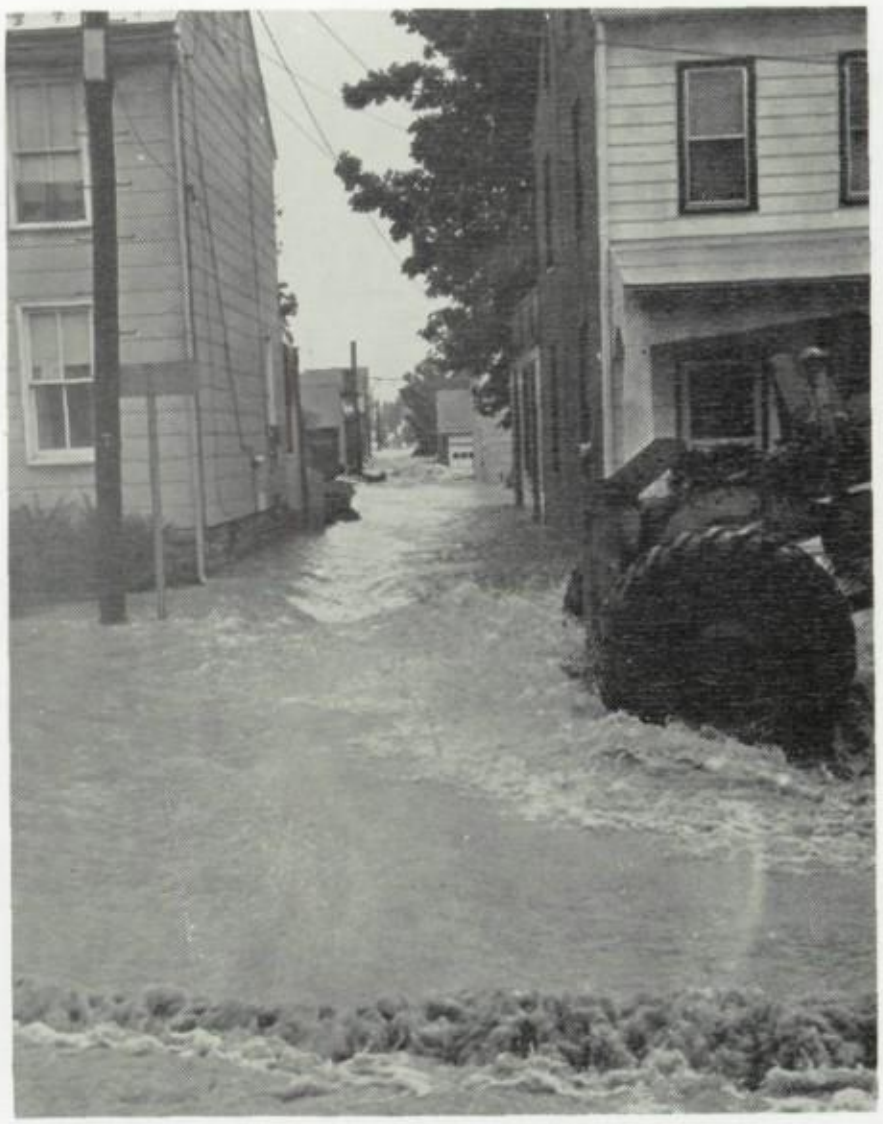
On Friday, June 23, it was announced by Federal Government officials that Lebanon County had been declared a national disaster area.

The Red Cross established emergency relief centers to aid flood victims. Food, clothing, and other items of necessity were collected.

When the flood waters subsided they left behind them mud and debris which spurred a massive clean-up attack. Amish and Mennonite people from Lebanon, Berks and Lancaster counties assisted area residents in recovering from the flood.

No one will ever know the total effect that this devastating flood had upon residents of Lebanon County. But one thing is for sure, the painful memories of Agnes and the flood of '72 will never be forgotten.

A payloader was used to rescue a victim of a heart attack during the fury of the storm.



Hazel Alley, between Seventh and Ninth Streets, was one of the hardest hit areas in downtown Lebanon.

A tow truck moves in to assist owners of stranded autos at Cumberland and Sixteenth Streets.

Band Sponsors Carnival,

Cedar Crest's third annual Music Aides Carnival was conducted Saturday, August 26 on the high school parking lot.

Twenty-two booths offered games, food, and items for sale. In addition to the carnival was the first pig roast in the history of Cedar Crest.

The band performed in the evening. Ray Cledoveo's orchestra and the group "Twenty-Five" also entertained during the carnival.

Money that was raised from the carnival will aid in the paying for various expenses such as new drums and all-weather coats for the band.

Band Director Mr. Robert Rhine tries his hand at shooting baskets at one of the skill booths.

Marches in Miss America Pageant

For the second consecutive year the marching Falcons competed in the Miss America Pageant Parade in Atlantic City.

With Mrs. Yak's girls leading the way to the tune of "Basin Street Blues," the marching unit captured third place in the competition against 34 other bands.

The band front placed second in its individual judging, while the band came in fourth. This was a marked improvement over last year, when the unit finished thirteenth out of 30.

Despite the fact that two buses broke down on the way home, and that the band's welcoming committee was kept waiting for over an hour, Mr. Rhine's musicians hope to make the trip again next year and bring home first place.

Band marches in a last-minute practice session on the boardwalk before the evening competition.

Pat Waltermeyer, Kim Barlett, and Sue Ogurcak lead the band through their final practice session.

Weekend of Success

"Moonlight and Roses" was the theme of the 1972 homecoming festivities conducted October 19 through October 21.

The weekend began Thursday with a record hop sponsored by the Pep Club. The following evening the traditional bonfire, ignited by the senior football players, lit up the sky. The homecoming game Saturday afternoon pitted the first place Falcons against the Ephrata Mountaineers.

Half time activities were highlighted by the naming of the five finalists for the homecoming court and the runners up. Karen Bernard, Ann Brightbill, Sue Funk, Cindy Harmuth, and Allyson Missimer were the top five finalists. Sheri Becker, Joan Hackett, Mary Meyer, Deb Podjed, and Renee Snavely followed as the runners up.

The dance conducted that evening, featured the group "We the People". The highlight of the evening was the crowning of Cindy Harmuth as the 1972 Homecoming Queen.

Drama, Comedy, Music, Talent Combine to Give

Seventy-six trombones led the big parade and the cast of the Music Man to the greatest success ever obtained by a musical at Cedar Crest. The cast, consisting of approximately 75 talented and enthusiastic students, paved the way for future musicals. The lead roles of Marion Paroo and Professor Harold Hill were portrayed by Kim Minnich and Sam Graci, respectively.

The supporting actors and actresses were Maryellen Hereda as Mrs. Paroo; Debbie Fishman as Eulalie MacKecknee Shinn; Mike Williams as Mayor Shinn; Tracy Jarrett as Zaneeta Shinn; Cindy Senkow as Gracie Shinn; Dann Leibig as Marcellus Washburn; George Stumpf as Tommy Djalas; Tom Wida as Charlie Cowell; Cathy Jones as Amaryllis; and Randy Miller as Winthrop.

Mr. David Shenk directed the production. Other committee members included Mrs. Michael Wentzel, choreography; Mrs. Earl Edris, vocal music; Mr. Robert Rhine, instrumental music; Mrs. Paul Eberly, set design; Mrs. Neal Horst, costumes; and Mr. Eugene McCleary, makeup.

The play was presented March 17, 18, 24, and 25, 1972 and in itself was a financial success. But to the people involved it was more than that. The standing ovations received proved to them that appreciation is the root of all success.

Exciting Evenings of Entertainment to Audiences

Chuck Fasnacht and Deb Podjed in "The Hair of the Aardwolf."

Three one-act plays were presented by the Dramatics Association on November 18, 1972.

"The Counting People" was directed by Mike Williams and JoAnn Dixon. This moving story depicted the life of a few select members of society who survived a nuclear blast. It dealt primarily with the rebellion of the younger generation.

A second play, "The Hair of the Aardwolf," was a satire on a girl-boy-parent relationship. It was directed by Cindy Gingrich and Donna Achenbach. They also directed a third play, "It's a Woman's World." This was centered around women's liberation.

The success of these three plays has revealed the capabilities of students in their strive for responsibility.

Students View Special Programs

Assemblies are always an added feature to the daily routine of student life. This year the school, along with the Booster Club, provided many entertaining programs.

"Project Concern," the first assembly of the year, was sponsored by the Lebanon County Jaycees. This program dealt with the "Walk for Mankind," a walk-a-thon to benefit starving peoples.

In the fall of the year an assembly was conducted to honor the athletes participating in football, soccer, hockey and golf.

Shoplifting was the topic of interest in the next assembly. A film entitled "Caught" highlighted the program which was followed by several guest speakers who advised students on the penalties for shoplifting.

Students received a taste of the unusual when General Motors presented "Previews of Progress." In one of the most interesting assemblies of the year, the GM representative provided the students with a look at new concepts in polymer chemistry, safer methods of transportation on the earth and moon, and the possible values of the laser beam in the future.

Additional programs presented in the spring included concerts by "Poor Richards' Chorus" from Franklin and Marshall College and the U. S. Army Band.

New Addition Opens After Unscheduled Delay

The opening of the west-end addition to Cedar Crest finally came in spring after a long, unscheduled delay.

The completion of the building was first scheduled for the beginning of the second semester. Due to needed materials not arriving on time, however, the opening had to be postponed.

Contained in the new addition are two biology rooms, an art room, seminar room, a home economics room, two general classrooms, and an instructional media center.

The media center includes the new and larger library, a conference room, the audio visual room, and the librarian's office.

Richard M. Nixon Wins In November Election

On November 7, 1972, Richard M. Nixon won reelection as the 37th president of the United States. The election brought an almost unprecedented landslide victory for the incumbent president over his demo-opponents George S. McGovern and Sargeant Shriver.

Inauguration Day, January 20, 1973, marked the beginning of President Nixon and Vice-President Spiro Agnew's second term in office. It was highlighted by the customary parades and gala inaugural parties.

Between the time of his reelection and inauguration, President Nixon continued to send negotiators to the peace talks in Paris. Evidently, the years of talking and patiently waiting paid off. On January 23, over nation-wide television, the president announced peace, and only one week after his inauguration, on January 27, the peace treaty was signed. Within 60 days, all troops and prisoners of war were home.

Secretary of State William Rogers applies his signature to one of the many documents that were part of the peace treaty to end the war in Vietnam.

Sorrowful, Disheartening Times Overshadowed

In the future, this book will serve as a compilation of the events that took place at Cedar Crest during the 1972-1973 school year. We also wish, however, for it to serve as a reminder of things that happened both nationally and internationally in the same span of time and that greatly influenced our lives. Therefore, we have composed a list of the events which helped to shape the world we live in.

Mark Spitz, seven gold medal winner at the Olympics, signs autographs for fans after returning home.

Lyndon Johnson's tragic death came only two days before the announcement of peace in Vietnam, a goal he had tried so hard to reach.

Some things made you sad. Vice presidential candidate Thomas Eagleton stepped down from the Democratic ticket due to past psychiatric treatment for mental fatigue.

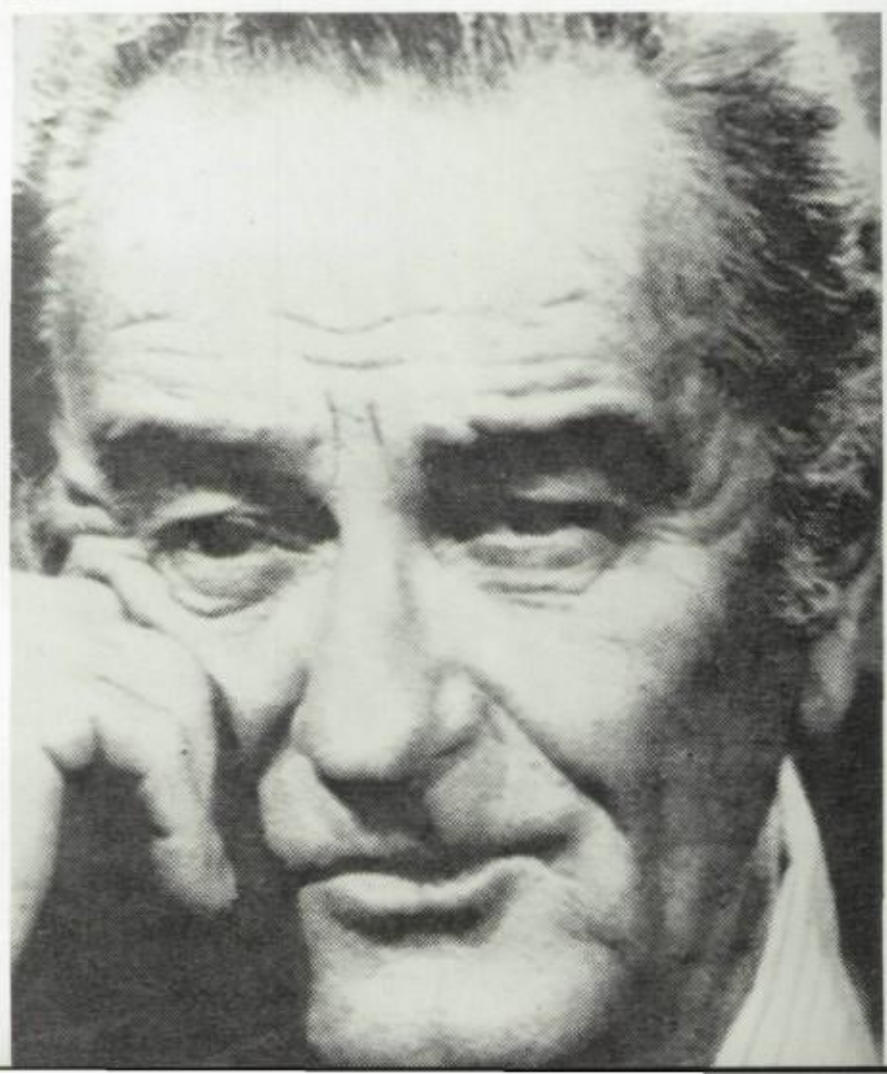
The national crime rate increased one percent, due partially to continued drug abuse. Over 60 planes were skyjacked and held for ransom.

Despite efforts to improve the ecology, pollution still came in three main kinds—air, water, and noise. The United States also faced an energy crisis. A crisis of a different sort is the seemingly endless violence in Northern Ireland.

In the sports world, local enthusiasts were disappointed when Penn State lost the Sugar Bowl to Oklahoma. The world was shocked when the Black September group raided Olympic Village in Munich, killing 11 Israelis. While taking supplies to earthquake victims in Nicaragua, Pittsburgh Pirates' Roberto Clemente was killed in an airplane crash.

Hearts were saddened with the deaths of former presidents Harry S. Truman and Lyndon B. Johnson within a month's time.

Garo Ypremian's field goal for the Miami Dolphins is blocked by a Washington player, leading to the only Redskin touchdown in the Super Bowl.



by Peace in Vietnam

The entertainment world produced a wide variety of films, ranging from the violent, bloody scenes of "The Godfather" to the moving moments of "Butterflies are Free" and "Lady Sings the Blues".

Despite the many disheartening events that took place, there were also many enlightening times to remember. Mark Spitz set a new olympic record by winning seven gold medals. In other sports, Oakland beat Cincinnati in the World Series. The Miami Dolphins gained revenge and won the Super Bowl against the Washington Redskins.

Over in Iceland, American chess player Bobby Fischer defeated Russian Boris Spassky for the world championship. The space program completed its final Apollo trip to the moon with the flight of Apollo XVII.

Eighteen year olds were allowed to vote for the first time in a presidential election.

Finally, while people wondered whether the negotiations in Paris were doing any good, President Nixon announced the ending of the war with the signing of a treaty to bring an honorable peace in Vietnam.

The crew of Apollo 17 consisted of Eugene Cernan (seated), Ronald Evans (right) and Harrison Schmitt.

Cedar Log Staff Breaks Tradition

The 1973 edition of the Cedar Log was marked by a year of change.

The staff has taken it upon themselves to question tradition and to search for a fresh, exciting way to present a pictorial record of our school year.

Many long hard hours of work were spent by dedicated journalists to capture the excitement and emotions of this year.

Some will appreciate our efforts, some will not. Our only hope is that we have satisfied those who wish to remember their years at Cedar Crest.

Within the pages of this book we have preserved the memories of another year gone by—because memories are all we have left.

School Newspaper Improved by Staff

Before the end of August, the dedicated staff of the Talon had already launched its busiest year by putting together its first issue.

The total number of Talon issues was increased to 13 and subscription rates reached an all-time high. "Rumor Has It" created interest among both students and teachers.

Not only was the style of the paper improved but it was published by Hartco Printing Company instead of the boys at Vo-Tech. This move made the paper more up-to-date than before.

Future Journalists Publish Magazine

Cedar Crest's Future Journalists of America are part of a national group of young people devoted to working in the field of journalism. This includes newspapers, magazines, yearbooks, radio, television, creative writing, advertising and photo-journalism.

The main project of Cedar Crest's club has been the publishing of the literary magazine, "The Quest" in the spring of the year.

First Row: A. Missimer, secretary; A. Kramer, president; J. Quairoli, treasurer. Second Row: K. Hartman, C. Senkow, P. Showers, D. Zollo, C. Keath, T. Conrad. Third Row: D. Fausnacht, K. Minnich, S. Honorary Society Rewards, Inspires

Quill and Scroll, the International Honorary Society for High School Journalists was organized for the purpose of encouraging and rewarding individual achievement in journalism and allied fields.

Members of the Cedar Crest Chapter are chosen for their superior work on either the Talon, Cedar Log, or The Quest. Each student receives a subscription to the "Quill and Scroll" magazine after his selection into this honorary association.

Pep Club members had plenty to cheer about at the Homecoming game.

Members decorate the throne for "Moonlight and Roses."

Spirited Pep Club Raises Enthusiasm

People who have an inborn fire of spirit for their school and teams make up the membership of the Pep Club.

Through a membership drive and an annual money-making project, the Pep Club provided a homecoming weekend that will be forever remembered by all participants.

The school spirit is lighted by the efforts of the sign committee who decorate walls with signs of competition and respect. The championship banners purchased by the Pep Club will be a reminder to everyone of "The Year of the Falcon Champions."

Pep Club Officers and Advisers: Mr. G. Rohrbach, adviser; T. Wida, president; C. Harpel, treasurer; S. Graci, vice-president; Mr. L. Scipioni, adviser. Missing from picture: Mr. W. Sherk, adviser; D. Podjed, secretary.

FTA Cadet Teaches

Everyday a number of students "invade" the Cedar Crest Middle School. Who are these "invaders"? Why none other than members of the FTA who cadet teach and act as teachers aides at the Middle School.

Cadet teaching takes place when members of the club visit the elementary and middle schools for a full day of student teaching twice a year.

The FTA sponsored Teacher's Appreciation Week, and tried to make life a little more pleasant for the teachers that drive. This was done by giving them a free car wash.

Business Students Attend Workshops

Beginning with a full workshop in Pittsburgh, FBLA participated in a variety of activities during the year.

Fall and spring regionals at Steelton-Highspire and Lebanon High were attended by club members.

Around the school, the club participated in the regional peanut crunch sale and gave the handicapped children at the middle school a Christmas party.

In May, club members and adviser Miss Mason attended a state convention at Host Farms in Harrisburg.

Club Members Aid Community

Under the direction of Mrs. Elinore Lynch, school nurse, the Medical Careers Club has made visits to community agencies and institutions in order to explore the field of medicine.

Cupcake sale for the March of Dimes and making favors for the church home at Christmas were a few of the medically related projects these girls engaged in.

Speakers from various medical fields talked to the group about their experiences and educational requirements.

First Row: J. Heisey, vice president; D. Allwein, president; C. Heisey, treasurer. Second Row: D. Koons, S. Zuck, B. Forney, K. Brubaker, A. Phillips, W. Hicks, L. Stober, M. Klahr, M. Hill. Future Farmers Create Leadership

Apple butter anybody? That was only one of the many projects headed by the Future Farmers of America. This active club consists of young men who wish to practice brotherhood, honor rural opportunities and responsibilities, and develop those qualities of leadership that a future farmer should possess.

In the fall of the year, these hard-working boys contributed to the homecoming activities by constructing a float for the contestants to sit on. This was then entered into the FFA category of the Lebanon and Myerstown Halloween parades.

First Row: Mr. Richard Moore, adviser, D. Engle, T. Krall, D. Brubaker, H. Dundore, G. Gingrich, G. Bollinger, R. Krall, R. Zombro. Second Row: M. Parker, A. Babe, E. Martin, E. Gingrich, J. Dedicated Gymnasts Master New Skills

Perseverance is the force that keeps these hard-working gymnasts in shape. Behind these smiling faces are hours upon hours of long, back-breaking work.

Despite sore arms and bruised limbs, these dedicated students continued to master their gymnastical skills and presented a spine-tingling show.

Their enthusiastic advisers, Miss Helene Hetrick and Mr. Thomas Allmon, have diligently aided them in the accomplishments and the perfections they have achieved.

First Row: C. Ingraham, S. Blessing, P. Bordlemay, J. Arnold, D. Kenney, C. Harpel, C. Gates, L. Innes. Second Row: J. Raiger, A. Krall, C. Keath, G. Albright, V. Fitting, P. Schott, S. Olson, K. CCHS Varsity Club Honors Lettermen

Membership to Varsity Club is an honor for these students earning a letter in a varsity sport.

Despite being preoccupied with occasional snowball battles, the club was able to earn money for their varsity club jackets by sponsoring a hoagy sale.

After Christmas many of the members went to Philadelphia for a basketball game.

Christian Society Takes Annual Trip To New York State

Tri-Hi-Y is an organization at Cedar Crest for young Christian women. They assist other organizations in aiding the elderly people and needy children.

Besides their annual trip to New York, the Tri-Hi-Y had a surprise stork shower for Mrs. Petry. They also went Christmas caroling at the Methodist Home in Cornwall and were responsible for Teachers' Week at the end of the year.

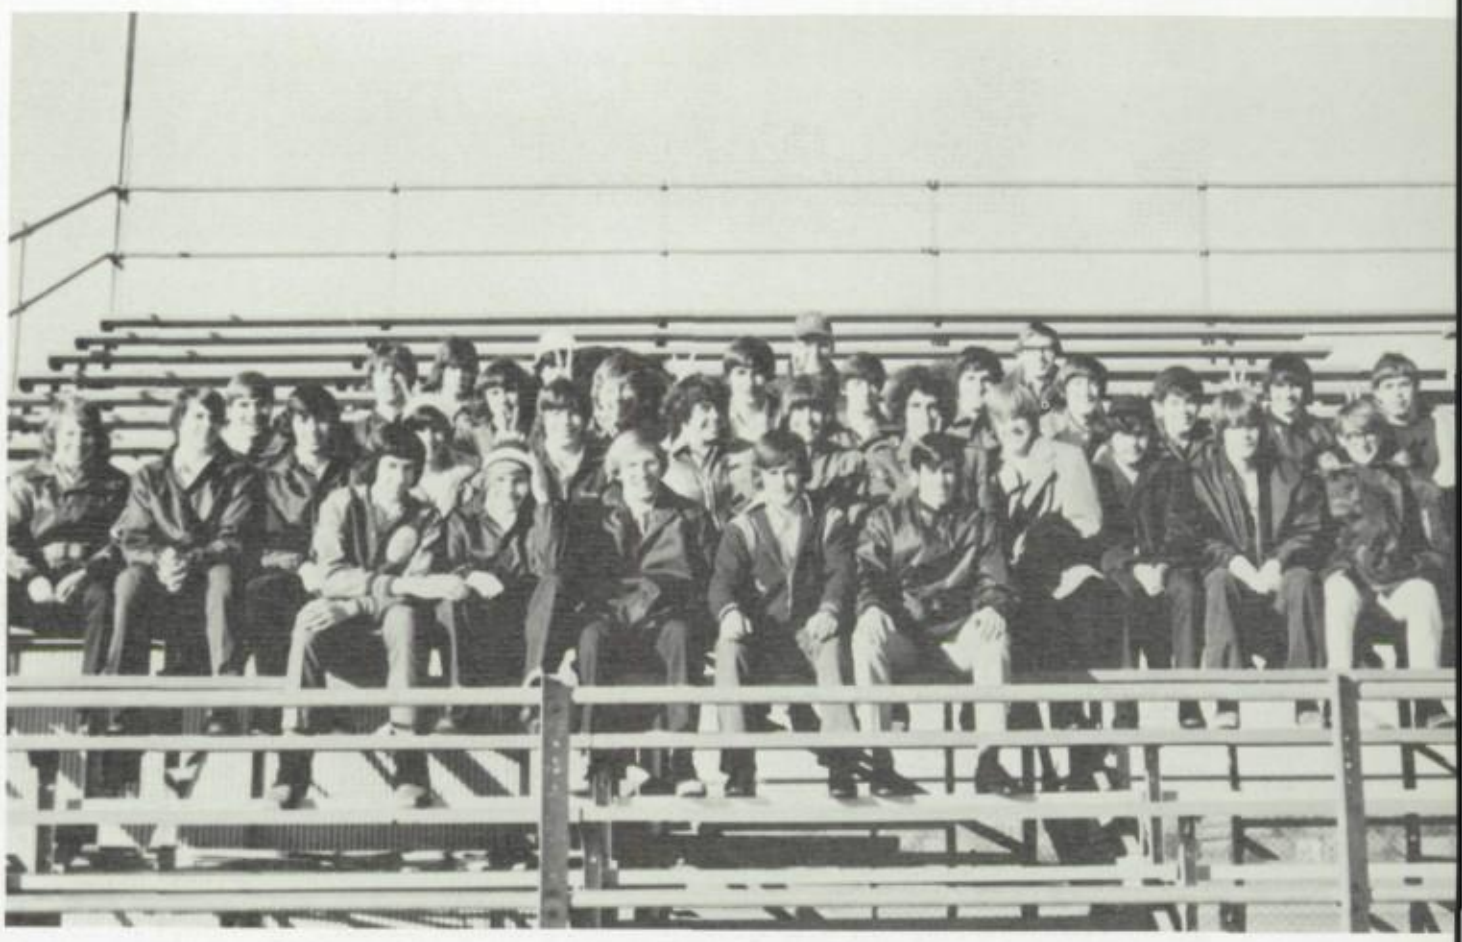
Meetings took place at the YMCA every second and fourth Thursdays of the month.

Officers: J. Brewer, treasurer; B. Albert, vice president; Miss Nancy Phillips, adviser; C. Harmuth, president; A. Brightbill, secretary; E. Watson, chaplain.

Friday Record Hops Sponsored by Hi-Y

Christian fun created another year of interest for members of the Hi-Y.

In addition to sponsoring record hops throughout the year and buying a new flag, the Hi-Y took its annual trip to New York City in the spring.



First Row: F. Blauch, C. Kindt, Mr. Gary Rohrbach, D. Layser, B. Albright. Second Row: K. Templin, K. Bechtel, E. Althouse, D. DiNunzio, N. Bensinger, M. Koehler, S. Wolfe, M. Kuhn, K. Fourth Row: D. Kilgore, B. Hagerty, J. Arnold, J. Sheffey.

Rembrandt Club Designs Scenery

Led by Mrs. Fern Eberly, artists of the Rembrandt Club brushed, carved, painted, sketched, and sculptured their way through another year of achievement.

Members set the mood for the annual Spring Musical by designing and painting scenery.

New York City was the culture stop for the club when they viewed a Broadway musical and museums.

Participation in various art contests and designing of windows were important activities during the year. Art projects by school students were entered into the regional Scholastic Art Contest, which were later observed by Rembrandt Club members on a trip to the William Penn Museum in Harrisburg.

Heavens Observed

Despite bad weather conditions, the Astronomy Club was still able to observe the stars using various telescopes.

Cedar Crest astronomers traveled to nearby observatories, including the one at Franklin and Marshall College and the one owned by the Astronomical Society of Harrisburg, to become more familiar with the planets and constellations.

Planetarium facilities were utilized by the club to present programs and plan activities. Several teachers attended meetings and gave talks on various fields of astronomy.

First Row: Mr. H. Levy, adviser; K. Wenger, president; B. Drum, secretary-treasurer; Mr. K. Zimmerman, adviser. Second Row: S. Hartsock, L. Ostrow, F. Vranesic, K. Templin, D. Abella, J. Landis, J. Skilled Swimmers Present Aqua Show In Spring Season

"Get together. You've got to stay together." These words were frequently spoken to the girls by synchronized swim instructor, Miss Anne Heisler, along with Mr. John Davis, the boys instructor. The two coaches worked in an endless effort with the swimmers in order to prepare them for the annual water show presented in the spring.

Practices started in January and concluded the day before the show. Costumes, decorations and music were provided by the participants.

First Row: R. Whitman, B. Gosch, M. Dissinger, R. Kramer, F. Basehore, Mr. Davis, T. Wida, J. Sanger, B. Grimes, K. Templin, L. Sholley, D. Dourte, S. Musheno, M. Meyer. Second Row: K. Barlett, D. Skiers Journey To Area Slopes In Search of Snow

The Ski Club's activities were greatly limited by Mother Nature's failure to cooperate. But the club did manage to make some trips to Heidelberg Country Club and Ski Roundtop. Weekend trips were also taken.

Fearlessly led by Mr. Gary Rohrbach and his Volkswagen bus, these never-die students have attributed greatly to Cedar Crest's athletic accomplishments.

Striking Ability Acquired by Bowlers

Strikes, spares, and many more gutter balls than necessary, created the scores for these weekly bowlers.

Each Monday, twenty teams competed against one another at Cedar Lanes in order to gain points for their team. The team scoring the highest points at the end of the year won a trophy.

Their courageous adviser, Mr. William Dissinger, has effortlessly led this group to many strikes in CCHS.

Culture of Latins Influences Club

Roman culture includes more than just learning the Latin language in a classroom. Mr. Ronald Lausch has tried to acquaint the members of the Junior Classical League with the Roman way of life.

Beginning with Caesar, Hercules, and Ovid, students learned the ancient style of Italy. "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum" was another well known work that expressed culture.

In St. Luke's Episcopal Church, the Latin students sang the Vespers of Christmas in Gregorian chant.

Highlighting the year was a huge traditional dinner called the cena.

German Club Grows

With an enlarged membership the German Club carried out many different activities during the year.

Under the guidance of Frau Leidy and Herr Braungard, the German Club made favors for Cedar Haven, took a trip to a German restaurant, and conducted an activity night.

Fiesta Honors Dead

Spanish Club worked to give students a clear look at Spanish culture.

Fiestas were the most popular means of achieving this goal though Spanish crafts, dances, and folklore were used often throughout the year.

Celebrations such as Day of the Dead and Navidad helped members understand Spanish customs while at the same time have fun.

The year's main event was an entire Spanish meal and fiesta. A lot was learned about Spanish foods but a lot was left on the plates!

Movies, Record Hop Highlighted by Club

C'est la vie! French Club opened this fun filled year with a welcome-back French party.

French movies highlighted the first semester of the year as members strove to improve their French. A record hop was then sponsored to increase the treasury.

Library Assistants Donate Time, Effort

This year 46 students volunteered their time to assist in the high school library. Without student assistants, any library would be difficult, if not impossible to run.

Some typical duties included charging and discharging books, shelving material, creating bulletin boards, and of course, signing hall passes.

Highlighting the year was their participation in the annual Christmas assembly.

EKOS Club Strives To Halt Pollution

Ecological knowledge offers survival!

During the year, members of EKOS viewed different aspects of the environment.

A picture show, planned by the club, depicted pollution in Lebanon County. Field trips were taken to recycling plants and industrial plants.

New Club Sponsors Chess Tournament For Entire School

As a newly-formed organization, the Chess Club surely made a strategic move into CCHS. Their move was slow, but prominent. Plans for this year included the organization of a school-wide chess tournament to determine players for informal interscholastic matches.

Fearlessly led by their witty adviser, Mr. Henry Swanger, this club hopes for a successful future. Their main problem now is to keep out of checkmate.

First Row: J. Peffley, D. Follet, B. Hagerty. Second Row: Mr. Henry Swanger, adviser; D. Shupp, K. Wenger, J. Hill, E. Smith, J. Stanilla, R. Reedy, B. Fields. Thrid Row: J. Buck, P. Keiser, L. Announcements Continue As Part Of Club's Activities

Daily announcements which were presented by the Speech Club made up only a small part of their year's activities.

Throughout the school term, student speakers supplied all speeches and introductions for special school programs.

Interested members also participated in the annual VFW Speech Contest.

Literary Magazine In Second Year Of Publication

This was the second year for publication of "The Quest," Cedar Crest's literary magazine.

The staff endeavored to produce a magazine which was a compilation of the best poems, prose, and artwork which students produced.

Along with the regular magazine published in the spring, a new and different idea was used to produce a winter issue. This effort consisted of a portfolio containing several posters reproducing poetry and related artwork or pictures.

Both publications used student submissions only and gave the school an idea of the immense literary talent lying within it.

Club Develops Photographic Skills

Say cheese! This could very well be the motto for the Cedar Crest Photography Club.

These students, under the direction of Mr. William Miller, learn the basic elements of photography, including developing film, making prints, picture composition, and use of cameras and film.

All this aids the members when they take pictures of various activities during the year.

Diverse Musical Talents Demonstrated by Dedicated Organists

Sonatas, concertos, jazz, and rock. These and other varieties of music are played by the many organ students of Cedar Crest.

Throughout the year, under the direction of Miss Ruth Killian, the organists practiced diligently during their free periods.

Skills that they acquired were demonstrated during the year at concerts, plays and numerous other activities.

First Row: E. Bross, R. Reedy, Miss Ruth Killian, P. Brandt, D. Beard, R. Rittle. Second Row: C. Fox, D. Follett, D. Fausnacht, K. Norman, J. Evans, B. Hoffman, M. Reist, G. Heim, L. Allen. NHS Members Possess Qualities of Leadership, Responsibility

By changing its constitution, National Honor Society now refers to itself as just a society rather than a club.

In the spring, the society conducted an induction ceremony for the new members. The members were selected on the basis of character, leadership, scholarship, and service.

Elected Councilmen Control Student Life

Student Council oversees and acts upon all matters related to student life and activities.

The council began the 1972-73 school year with a "Get Acquainted Dance" sponsoring the "Legends." Yearly the council operates the senior lounge, school store, and revises the handbook.

For the first time this year the Student Council managed the ordering of the class jackets and class rings.

Thespians Enact Stage Productions

To the enjoyment of audiences and actors alike, the Dramatics Association staged three one-act plays and a musical during the school year.

Two comedies, "The Hair of the Aardwolf" and "It's a Woman's World," and a drama, "The Counting People," were presented in the fall. They were student directed and combined into a single night of entertainment.

"Guys and Dolls," presented in the spring, was a musical set in the gangster era. Members of the association acted, sang, danced, and took care of lighting, make-up, and props.

Stage Workers Construct Scenery

Cedar Crest's stage crew was primarily responsible for constructing the scenery for the fall play and spring musical productions.

Students engaged in this club became familiar with a variety of stage equipment and general theatrical procedures. Special emphasis was placed on lighting and sound techniques.

Long hours of hard work and dedication prior and during a production can be accredited to these students.

Miss America Pageant Parade Highlights Outstanding Year For Marching Falcon Band

August marked the beginning of the school year for all band members as Mr. Robert F. Rhine conducted a week of band camp. The camp's activities included sectional and full band music rehearsals, parade marching, football show practices, and a watermelon party. Students ate the cafeteria's packed lunches twice a day. All the effort was worthwhile, however, as the band placed third out of 35 bands at the annual Miss America Pageant Parade.

The Marching Falcons get their first taste of field competition this year when they competed against five other bands in the performance of football drills. The band also performed at the football games, marched in parades, and put on their annual Christmas and Spring Concerts.

Dazzling Bandfront Applauded for Excellent Performances

Mrs. Yak's pretty and talented girls heard cheers wherever they performed this year, whether it be practicing when the football team just happened to have a break or on the boardwalk in front of the crowds during the Miss America Parade.

The band front consists of a color guard, banner carrier, guide-on flags, baton and flag squads, and the silver girls. Perseverance and dedication on everyone's part helped this year's band front achieve more honors than any other in Cedar Crest's history.

Chorus Activities Include School, Community Concerts

Continuing with their reputation as being the most active high school chorus in the county, the chorus, under the direction of Mr. James H. Garrett, Jr., made many public appearances. In addition to the annual Christmas and Spring Concerts, the chorus sang at many churches and civic affairs throughout the community. December was their busiest month, when they gave five public concerts and were heard on radio and television.

The increasing interest in the chorus can be seen by the participation of 127 in the Freshman chorus. They also performed at the Christmas and Spring Concerts.

Giant Awakens

The Football Falcons put forth the greatest effort ever produced by a Cedar Crest gridiron team. By posting a 9-1-1 record, they were atop all other county schools and earned a share of the Lancaster-Lebanon crown.

The season looked grim as the Falcons were scored upon on the third play of the season against Manheim Township. But the Falcons tightened under pressure and pulled out the victory. A week later they returned to upset Warwick in the final seconds.

Achieving easy victories over Hempfield, Columbia, and Juniata Joint, the team set a new school record by winning five games in succession.

Errant play turned the Conestoga Valley game topsy-turvy and the Falcons could not seem to find themselves. The ball control plan was marred by errors and the Falcon's unblemished record was spoiled by what turned out to be their only loss, 38-26.

The Birds retaliated and hammered Ephrata to highlight a successful Cedar Crest Homecoming weekend and then took care of an old Tri-County nemesis, Governor Mifflin, in the final home game of the year.

Again wandering out of league competition, the Falcons fought to a draw against the Bulldogs of Wilson before meeting Lebanon in the "Local Bowl."

Cedar Crest's biggest crowd ever witnessed the most exciting game of the season as the Falcons edged the Cedars on a last minute field goal.

The momentum carried into a rout over Elizabethtown as the Cedar Crest football team concluded its campaign and the long-awaited climb from rags to riches.

Soccer Team Improves Record

Busy improving their record, the Falcons completed the 1972 season with a 6-8-1 overall record, just one mark away from Coach Hibshman's last year prediction that the team would have a 6-9-1 record. Membership in the Lancaster-Lebanon League has proved beneficial to the Falcons as their record is much better than previous ones compiled in the Berks County League.

Lineman Chuck Lineaweaver and halfback Bob Goshert were named to the Lancaster-Lebanon League All-Star Team.

Looking on to next season, the team will have to work extra hard, as most of the starting team will be graduating. Coach Hibshman is optimistic about his juniors and sophomores, and is looking forward to a winning season in 1973.

Falcon Linksmen Tops In Team Pride and Spirit

Finishing with a disappointing 3-6-1 record, the Falcon linksmen managed to come out on top in team spirit.

Coach Wilfred Sherk was proud of his boys and commented that the team spirit was the best in Cedar Crest history.

Two of the finest golfers in the league, Ed Smith and Dave Kilgore, provided the Falcons with some bright moments throughout the year. There were many hard working underclassmen who should improve to give the Falcons better luck in the Lancaster-Lebanon League in the future.

Hockey Squad Suffers from Lack of Goals

Although the hockey team didn't produce a winning record this year, the girls gained experience in playing the Lancaster-Lebanon teams. They put together an overall 2-7-3 record.

The Falcons managed to score wins over Northern Lebanon and Lancaster Country Day, a non-league team. Many of their games were lost by only one goal. The score of the Donegal game, the team that won the league championship was 2-1.

Rosanne Smith, one of the co-captains, was placed on the Lancaster-Lebanon All-Star Team. Karen Bernard won an honorable mention.

Birds Bounce To Fine Year

Only one obstacle kept the Falcon quintet from taking championship honors in their first season as members of the Lancaster-Lebanon League. That obstacle was undefeated Lancaster McCaskey.

The Red Tornado "blew" the Falcons off the court in their first meeting, but the Falcons came back next time to give the league champs all they could handle in their second encounter.

As for the rest of the league, only Columbia managed to eke out a victory over the Falcons. Lebanon, Cedar Crest's "lovable" rival, fell victim to the Falcons in both encounters, but the rest of the teams were just routine victories for the varsity five.

After compiling a 17-3 league record the Falcons tried to equal last year's post season heroics, as they entered the District Three playoffs. The Woodsmen started off on the right foot with a squeaker over Cedar Cliff, but then were beaten by Hershey, putting an end to the great 19-5 season.

Falcon Swimmers Splash to Best Season

Having their best season ever, the Falcon tankmen splashed through the Central Penn League with an 8-6 record. It was the best effort ever put forth by a Cedar Crest swim team.

The swimmers put in top performances against teams such as Coatesville, Reading, and Governor Mifflin. These meets provided a few tense moments before they ended, and the Falcons won each by one event.

Although many of the boys who went to districts didn't get a high placing, the individual medley relay team consisting of Brad Grimes, Gil Weik, Scott Weik, and Jim Huey, captured sixth place.

The Falcons hope to have an excellent team in the future due to many fine underclassmen.

New Sport Fairs Better Than Expected

In their first season of interscholastic varsity competition, the Cedar Crest wrestling team left a strong impression on many of its opponents.

Ending their season with a surprise one-point win over Northern Lebanon, the matmen compiled a league record of 3-6.

A stand-out for the team was junior Steve Wolfe who went undefeated all season, but lost out in his bid for a spot at districts.

The Cedar Crest grapplers are a very dedicated group. In order to stay at their weight level, the boys must constantly remain on a special diet and everyone celebrates after weight-check when they find they are at their weight level.

Coach Ebersole doesn't smile much, but the team provided many occasions this year when a slight grin could be seen spreading across his face.

Falcon Girls Make District Semi-Finals

The Lebanon jinx appeared to be too much for the Falconettes to overcome, but the girls proved their potential as they dumped the Cedars in the District Playoffs.

Giving the girls their only two losses of the season and edging them out for league honors, Lebanon again had to face Cedar Crest as both teams entered District Three playoff competition for the first time.

Cedar Crest won the battle of the locals and although they lost in the semifinals to the district champ, it showed that the girls are still keeping up the tradition of fine basketball at Cedar Crest.

They finished the season with an overall record of 17-3 and they did it all without Rosanne Smith, who had a knee injury early in the year.

With four regulars returning next year and a great array of talent coming from this year's jayvee squad, Coach Helene Hetrick can look forward to another fine year in '73-'74.

Falcon Nine Fly High

Veteran coach Frank Keath guided the 1972 varsity baseball team to a 7-3 league mark, and an 8-6 overall record.

The team had some outstanding games, such as the one against Tulpehocken in which the Falcons won by a score of 22-1.

Although most of the varsity team graduated last year several fine jayvee team members provided stiff competition this year for Lebanon High and Elco, which were the toughest opponents to the Falcon nine.

"We were contenders for the Lancaster-Lebanon championship this year," stated Coach Keath. "We were stronger defensively and had more depth in the infield than last year."

Cindermen Challenged In New League

Cedar Crest's trackmen concluded their final season in the Berks County League of 1972 with a 3-4 record. They managed to send a strong mile relay team to districts.

"We had some good looking sophomores this year. Our prospects looked dim at the beginning without a middle school program," stated Coach Glenn Hibshman about his 1973 team.

This year's team started from scratch to get their team together since they lost some good men due to graduation.

Lettermen Strengthen Tennis Team

Even though the Falcon netmen had a tough time getting started last year, they still managed to compile a 5-7 record.

Rodney Miller and Tom Goodman made the semi-finals of the Berk's County League Championship of 1972.

This year Coach Firestone was fortunate in having most of last year's team back since there were five returning seniors.

Coach Firestone felt the boys' team would have a fine season this year as they competed against the strong teams of the Lancaster-Lebanon League, such as Donegal and Manheim Central.

Girls Experience Smashing Season

Compiling a 9-1 record, the girl's tennis team managed to capture the Lebanon County Championship of 1972.

The only loss the girls suffered was to Tulpehocken, a team that always provides tough opposition.

Cheerleaders Aim To Combat Apathy

Spirit is the name of the game, and enthusiasm is how you play.

Supporting Cedar Crest's many athletic teams is the main responsibility of these dedicated girls. Though their work may appear easy, it's not always a simple task trying to create enthusiasm when 1400 blank expressions are staring you in the face, and 2800 hands lie motionless in students' laps.

But for the majority of time the cheerleaders have the pleasure of leading an ecstatic crowd in support of our victorious teams.

Through long, hard practices the girls have been trying to better their skills. With the able assistance of Mrs. Phyllis Yaklich they have been able to do just that.

Dedication, unity, enthusiasm, spirit and pride are what these girls are all about.

Dr. Stoudt Steps Down After Rewarding Career

After serving over six years in the Cornwall-Lebanon School District, Dr. Eugene F. Stoudt retired on December 31, 1972.

Dr. Stoudt began his career after graduation from Albright College in 1929. He began teaching at Freeburg Borough High School and later became assistant principal. He progressed to supervising principal of the former Bethel Township School District from 1934 to 1943.

He became principal of Wilson High School and served there for five years, later becoming director of the laboratory school, student teaching and placement, and school law instructor at Kutztown State College.

In 1963, Dr. Stoudt studied school systems in England, Scotland, and Norway on a Fulbright Scholarship.

Among his many contributions to the district was the establishment of a summer school program, the Cedar Crest Middle School, and a sizeable addition to Cedar Crest High School.

He also helped form a full recreational program for students and adults, and was instrumental in initiating the high school musicals.

As the school term draws to an end we reach the parting of the ways, we share with the seniors memories of school events such as classroom incidents, extra-curricular activities, athletic victories, teachers who gave inspiration and guidance, companions who have grown with us into maturity.

Much has been learned, many facts accumulated; yet it is character, personality and culture we really have strived to achieve. What degree of success we gain will depend very much on our convictions, not on the tastes, fads or opinions of current groups.

Conviction depends on one's will to act on our own values—How do we treat other people? Do we tell the truth to each other? Do we share or shirk the work that must be done? Can we show tenderness and give compassion to those who need it? Can we be trusted with a job, with money, with responsibility?

To make full use of one's talents is the answer and we wish to all of you this particular and precise ability in your future endeavors.

Dr. Eugene F. Stoudt
Superintendent

Board of Education: Seated: Charles W. Stoudt, Vice-President; Robert S. Lux, President; Charles W. Mellinger, Treasurer; George H. Brubaker, Secretary. Standing: Robert E. Hauer, Mrs. George H. Wise, John E. Gingrich, William E. Sullivan, Dr. Raymond M. Dorsch, Jr., A. H. Ehrgood, Jr., Solicitor.

The joy and importance of learning is sometimes considered second best to the personal relationships and experiences in our high school years. Interaction with people of all ages, backgrounds, and career expectations is a prelude to life in our society at large. Life is a series of adjustments to people, ideas, and material things — hopefully, your education these past four years at Cedar Crest will help you make the proper adjustments in your future endeavors.

My association with this class has been short, but my wishes for a long and productive life go with all of you.

Dr. Marlin H. Kessler
Superintendent

There will be many occasions for both you and me to page through this "book of life" in the years to come. Hopefully, we will be able to reflect and recapture the happiness, excitement and successes of your school years from a different perspective. My wish for each of you is that your new perspective will be from the standpoint of self-realization.

Edwin W. Beaver
Assistant Superintendent

As the years pass by, one realizes more and more the value of lessons learned in the past. The adage "the past is a prologue to the future" is not just a bright witticism, it is a truism in every sense of the word.

I know the class of 1973 has learned its lessons well. Your future is limitless, because your past has been most productive. I both salute and congratulate you upon your achievements to date and wait with keen anticipation your accomplishments of the future.

Earl W. Boltz
Principal

With every culmination there is a graduation, a commencement, and a dejection as one moves along through life's plateaus: a graduation which brings forth the satisfaction of accomplishment — a commencement which brings forth an enthusiasm for future endeavors — a dejection which brings forth a degree of sadness as one leaves the familiar to embark on the unfamiliar.

Hopefully, your experiences here at Cedar Crest have prepared each of you to face the unfamiliar future confidently, so that your place in life can be achieved honorably, joyfully, and satisfactorily.

In Memoriam

You are not forgotten
Nor will you ever be,
As long as life and memory last
We will remember thee.
We miss you now and our hearts are sore.
As time goes by, we miss you more;
Your loving smile, your gentle face.
No one can fill your vacant place.

"There is a time in every man's education when he arrives at the conviction that envy is ignorance; that imitation is suicide; that he must take himself for better, for worse, as his portion; that though the wide universe is full of good, no kernel of nourishing corn comes to him but through his toil bestowed on that plot of ground which is given him no till. The power which resides in him is new in nature, and none but he knows what that is which he can do, nor does he know until he as tried."
